

person Rajkumar Goswami and Rajkot municipal commissioner Amit Arora said. The three chicks are healthy and are under observation, it added.

"Ostriches do lay eggs in zoos in India. But successful breeding is not that common," Rakesh Hirapra, superintendent of RZP said, adding, "This is a success for us, given the initial hiccups in stabilising the birds in our zoo."

"We incubated the three eggs artificially and eventually, the chicks hatched from each one of them," Hirapra said.

primary or secondary markets. Apart from postponing the hike, the developers also demanded that the jantri prices should not be hiked more than 50 per cent for open land, while it should only be 20 per cent for built-up property. The developers also sought a reduction in non-agricultural premium to 20 per cent from the existing 40 per cent.

The developers claimed that the jantri prices — after the hike — was more than the market price at many places in the state and so a scientific third party study should be undertaken before any future increase in the jantri prices, which are the base rates, below which sale registrations of properties cannot be done.

"We held a meeting on Thursday, where we decided to hand over a memorandum to the district collector. We do not want to go for any fight. We just want to tell the government that we are right," said Ajay Patel.
